

THE BIRMINGHAM CHIFF ...off the old blockflute

The Birmingham Chapter of the American Guild of Organists

April 1, 2018

A Word from the Dean

Dear friends,

I hope you can see the light at the end of the tunnel after one of our busiest times of the year. It was good to see so many of you at our home for the March meeting. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves and hopefully got enough to eat. It was good to have Melinda Doyle, the choral director from the University of Montevallo, join us and provide a very informative program. We look forward to our next meeting on April 9th at the Baptist Church of the Covenant. Dinner and business will be followed by a recital with performers from high school to post-graduate level. We have a good group lined up and hope that you will join us.

Our May meeting will be held at South Highland Presbyterian Church May 14th and our own Pat Fitzsimmons and Jim Cook will lead the program highlighting the history of the Birmingham AGO chapter. This should be a very enlightening meeting. Hope you will plan to attend.

If you have any ideas for programs for next year, let us know. The Executive Committee is in the process of putting together the 2018-19 Calendar of Events and welcomes your input.

Sincerely,
Dan

APRIL 9TH : CHAPTER MEETING AND STUDENT RECITAL

This month Dan Lawhon is hosting us at Baptist Church of the Covenant, 2117 University Boulevard, Birmingham 35233. We'll follow our usual schedule of dinner at 6 p.m. followed by the business meeting and 7 p.m. program.

Sub-Dean Bruce Ludwick is volunteering his services as the chef for our April dinner. Bruce is preparing pulled pork and chicken/turkey bbq for the entrée, along with charro beans and rice. Dan Lawhon is providing Key Lime pie for dessert, and there will be a variety of beverages as well. Cost of the meal is $12.00.

Log on to the chapter website to make your dinner reservation or contact Mike Burt at (205) 201-3838 or treasurer@birminghamago.org.

Following dinner will be an important chapter meeting where the Executive Committee will present tentative plans for next year's programs. We'll also review proposed updates to the Chapter Bylaws and Chapter Operating Procedures for inclusion on the ballot in the May election.

Then we'll move to the sanctuary to hear a recital presented by several student organists from UA and Samford and high school students studying with some of our chapter members.

Please reserve Monday evening, April 9th to attend! We need your input and support not only for our business concerns, but for our young performers as well. See you there!

HAPPENING THIS MONTH: CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITIONS

As noted in the March newsletter, all three Birmingham chapter scholarships are available this year. The Minnie McNeil Carr Scholarship Competition is for high school students and the Myrtle Jones Steele Scholarship Competition is for organists of college age – age 23.

The competition for both scholarships will be held on Saturday, April 28, 2017, at 1p.m. at Independent Presbyterian Church in Birmingham.

Deadline for applications is April 10, 2018, for both scholarships. Competition guidelines, requirements, and application forms may be downloaded from <http://www.birminghamago.org/Scholarships.html>.

Deadline for application is April 25 for the Warren Hutton POE Scholarship. There is no performance competition for the Hutton scholarship, but there are requirements to be met.

For details and applications for these scholarships, please consult the above website or contact Dr. Charles Kennedy at kennedy@cathedraladvent.com or (205) 226-3505

April Opportunities

On Sunday, April 15th at 6 p.m. Christ Episcopal Church in Tuscaloosa will hold an Evensong Service and Dedication of their newly-installed Letourneau Opus 132. This is a 3-manual instrument of 35 ranks.

The Evensong service will feature the church's St. Cecilia Singers and choral music by Martin, McKie, Moore, Rawsthorne, Roberts, and White. Doff Procter will conduct with Scott Roberts accompanying. Former Birmingham chapter member and previous organist at the church Tyler Canonico is returning as the recitalist for the event.

First Presbyterian Church, also in Tuscaloosa, home of the 3-manual, 75-rank Letourneau Opus 129, is hosting Wilma Jensen for a recital and masterclass. The recital will be Friday, April 27th at 7 p.m. with the masterclass on Saturday, April 28th at 10 a.m.

Many of you enjoyed hearing this wonderful organ at our POEA 2017 last summer and at several recitals held there since its installation.

Visit <http://letourneauorgans.com/en/opus.php> to see the specifications and photos of these instruments.

Please remember to check the Coming Events section of the chapter website home page for additional programs scheduled at area churches and universities. There are a number of them that would be well worth the time to attend.
